Today's Readings

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21; Galatians 5:1, 13-18; Luke 9:51-62

*I had friends who knew from a young age what they wanted to do as a career. One friend always wanted to be a cop. Another knew from the first grade on that she wanted to teach. Another wanted to be an architect. I envied them. I knew I wanted to be a short stop for the Chicago White Sox like my hero "Little Louie" Aparicio. I also knew I wasn't that good. Many of those friends growing up are now in jobs that didn't even exist when we were back in grammar school, like computer programmers, medical technicians, and web designers. This leads me to believe that while parents try to teach their kids the many lessons of growing up, one lesson ought to be how to listen to and answer our inner call. Each of us is called. Few hear that call like the voice of God calling in the night. Usually we discover our call, like Elisha, while doing other things. For most of us our call comes as a persistent, inner prompting that can easily be drowned out by the lure of money, power, security, or fame. But we won't be happy until we hear and respond to our innermost call. Discernment—learning to hear God's call—is a skill every Christian needs to cultivate. What are you doing to help the kids in your life learn to listen, and hear, and follow the promptings of God in their hearts? Tom McGrath, *Prepare the Word

THANK YOU for welcoming me as your pastor. I cannot believe how fast my time with you has passed. But I come to this time in my life that I know I must move on. You are very fortunate to have a man of Fr Terry Weber's caliber as your new pastor. I know he will serve you well. Welcome Him! Support him!
My new address is 3920 Barrington Street, San Antonio, Texas 78217. My phone number remains the same: 210 884 0674. Thank you Risen Savior Parish!

A REFLECTION: Only in freedom can we direct ourselves toward goodness.

(Gaudium et Spes, Vatican II)

The more we do good, the freer we become. "There is no true freedom except in the service of what is good and just." (Catechism of the Catholic Church 1733)

Sacraments

Reconciliation: Saturdays 4:00 – 4:45 PM or other time by appointment.

Baptism: A pre-Baptismal class is required for first-time parents. The class is held the fourth Tuesday of each month at 7:00 PM and parents must make reservations. Class is best done prior to your child's birth.

Marriage: Diocesan policy requires six (6) months preparation for all couples planning marriage. A wedding date can NOT be set until this preparation is underway. Prior marriage by either party usually requires an annulment taking an additional year. Contact Fr. Wagner well in advance of a desired wedding date.

RISEN SAVIOR CATHOLIC PARISH IS A WELCOMING AND VIBRANT COMMUNITY OF FAITHFUL FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST. UNITED AROUND THE TABLE OF GOD'S WORD AND SACRAMENT AND LED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT WE SHARE OUR TIME, TALENT AND TREASURE TO SERVE AND TEACH AS JESUS DID.

Today we support the Holy Father in his charitable works. The Peter Pence Collection is taken up worldwide in an effort of solidarity to support the most disadvantaged: victims of war, oppression, and natural disaster and others in need of emergency assistance. Pope Benedict XVI has said, "God's love...gives us the courage to continue seeking and working for the benefit of all" (Caritas in Veritate, no. 78). Cast the love of Christ upon the world—please be generous in today's Collection.

Thanks for your generous response to this annual appeal—almost $48,000.00. Did you know that we have to make up the difference between the money collected and our goal of $57,000. This means that if we receive no more money for the CFSA we are required to pay $9,000. from our Sunday offerings. Please send your pledge card to the parish office. We would like to achieve our goal by July 1.
